

The Bocce club started off June with an amazing steak cookout and finished up the month with an tournament and ice cream social.

On June 7, 130 bocce members and guests gathered in Gazebo Park to feast on rib eye steaks, cooked to perfection and the sides. The social director, Barb Orlando and her crew put together a great spread. There was no special occasion, just a chuck wagon together.

Check out these beautiful ribeyes.

They were grilled to perfection by the bocce clubs own "grillmasters" and served with baked potatoes, salad and beverages.

Our "grillmasters" Jeff Rose, Tom Hunt with our down home social director, Barb Orlando.

There was also a cookie contest with a cash prize. The contest was won by Jeff Rose. (That's him in the apron and cowboy hat). And the cookies were dessert. Delicious.

What a great afternoon. Delicious food (my steak was perfection), homemade desserts, music by DJ Ed Knott and socializing with friends.

June 25 was the culmination of a 6 week battle between 36 teams. It came down to a tiebreaker rolloff between 3 teams the weekend before and after games on Monday and Tuesday we had a Wednesday battle royal for champion.

What a fantastic finish to a great season! The Spring Round Robin Playoffs wrapped up with a thrilling finale as Game of Throws faced off against The Goombahs in a competitive, high-energy match.

Both teams brought their A-game, trading points and strategy in a back-and-forth battle that kept everyone on the edge of their seats. In the end, Game of Throws pulled ahead to clinch the win, 17–12, earning well-deserved bragging rights and a place in bocce glory.

A big congratulations to Game of Throws, and hats off to The Goombahs for an incredible run and great sportsmanship throughout the tournament.

The Goombahs. 2nd place in the Spring Round Robin. Tim Robinson, Kathleen Pennington, Roy Pennington, Lonna O'Connor, Betty Mora, Tony Mora, Marge Pritchard and Bob Pritchard.

And the winners are The Game of Throws. Kerry Besmehn, Tina Parsley, Todd Horvatic, Daniel Martinez, Tina Hunt, Andy Altman, Espie Martinez and Tom Hunt. Congratulations to all the teams.

And then everybody got ice cream.

Next up is the Summer Gals and Guys tournament starting July 14.
